

Internship and Report Writing 4(0-4)

Every student will undertake practical training in an approved food industry or research organization. The student will maintain a daily diary duly signed by the industrial/research supervisor. At the end of the internship, the student will submit a written report. He/she will be evaluated by a committee on the basis of his/her performance in the industry/research organization, final written report and oral presentation.

Website: www.foodscienceuniverse.com